WHY ALBERTA?

How Alberta is turning carbon emissions into an advantage

Chemical and Engineering News (C&EN)
Jan. 24, 2022

Excerpt:

Large industrial plants are meant to last decades, so planners need a solution for carbon now if they want to hit their own net-zero targets for 2050.

"I don't think we'll build another cracker where we couldn't make it carbon neutral."

– Tyler Edgington
